SUMMER READING LIST

ENGLEWOOD ON THE
PALISADES CHARTER
SCHOOL

June 2023

Dear Parents and Students,

The summer is a great time to enjoy reading! We have put together a suggested reading list for you to choose from to complete your summer reading assignment. Please choose 10 books to read and fill out your reading log as you finish each book. We have attached three book report forms for you to complete. Please pick three books of your choice for these reports. Also, we have attached the rubric that we will be using to grade the book reports.

Please have your child do as much of the writing as possible. We look forward to hearing about the books you read over the summer. We will collect your reading log and book reports when we meet in person!

Have a safe and happy summer!

Sincerely,

The Kindergarten Teachers

The following is the rubric that will be used by the Kindergarten teachers to grade the summer reading book reports.

Kindergarten Reading Rubric

4	All parts of the book report forms are complete. Book reports were turned in on time. Illustration of favorite part of book is neat and colored in. Writing completed by student.
3	Book report forms are complete. Book reports were turned in one day late. Illustration is recognizable and some color is added. Writing completed mostly by student.
2	Book report forms were missing information. Book reports were turned in a couple of days late. Illustration is drawn with very little detail and not colored in. Words written by parent.
1	Book reports were not complete. Book reports were several days late/not handed in. There is no illustration for the favorite part of book. Very little/no information is given in writing.

Encouraging Summer Reading

Literacy is the single most important skill that your child needs to be successful in school. The following list includes ideas of ways that you can help your child discover the great adventures of reading!

- Establish a time for reading each day. Ask your child about what he or she is reading. Try to relate the material to an event that is happening this summer or to another book or story.
- Let your child see you reading for enjoyment. Talk about the great things that you discover when you read.
- Create a summer reading list. Choose books from the reading list or head to the library and explore the shelves. A general rule for selecting books at the appropriate reading level is to choose a page and ask your child to read it aloud. If he or she does not know more than five words on the page, the book may be too difficult.
- Read newspaper and magazine articles, recipes, menus, maps, and street signs on a daily basis to show your child the importance of reading.
- Find books that relate to your child's experiences. For example, if you are going camping, find a book about camping. This will help your child develop new interests.
- Make up stories. This is especially fun to do in the car, on camping trips, or hanging out at home. Encourage your child to tell a story with a beginning, middle, and an end. Or, have your child start a story and let other family members build on it.
